

Table of Contents

Requirements and Overview	1
---------------------------------	---

Requirements and Overview

These are the requirements the system must meet:

- the system must be created/modified to get a simple, easy to use education platform
- trainers should be able to upload their own tasks and games to the platform
- it should contain a variety of difficulty levels
- there must be a point system which rewards the user and lets him compare his points with other users
- players should be able to track their progress